From the abbreviated transcripts of testimony in the Shaw trial, T-P 2/22/69:

Witness, Miss Goldie Naomi Moore, who had been Shaw's secretary

"Alcock asked Miss Morrie if Shaw ever rented space in the ITM to a Cuban organization in 1963. 'I don't know', she answered.

"The assistant district attorney reminded Miss Moore that she had testified during an Orleans Parish Grand Jury investigation that a Cuban group had been given space at the ITM.

Miss Moore then said she seemed to recall a group calling itself 'Americans Free Cuba' that had been granted ITM space. She pointed out, however, that her memory was more hazy now than it was two years agi, when she testified before the grand jury."

In the 1964 directory (they are oublished every two years in N.O.) Latin American Reports is listed at 509, with 507 vacant and no other number assigned until 514. Of course, the Cordell Hull Foundation also was there. For further significance, see COUP D'ETAT
